INTRODUCTION

It has been in my heart to bring forth the writings that has been penned down over the years of my walk with God -all the encounters, experiences along this journey of life, through the ups and downs, valley and mountains, thick and thin, bright and gloomy: God has always been faithful and Good. Over the years, He has led me, taught me, corrected me, showed His ways, poured out His love, grace and goodness. I Thank Him, my Saviour and my Love!

This small booklet aims to bring out the goodness of God, reveals the great and wonderful life He has for us. Many a time, we live in ignorance of this truth. This book speaks of His goodness, His love, more and more that is preserved for us, as His children. Restoration is the ultimate plan of God. It is the most incredible work of GOD.

I Pray that this booklet will bring you back to God, prepare you to receive all that God has for you. May you walk into His goodness and experience Him in the fullness of God. As you read, may the wonderful work of the Holy Spirit - 'Restoration' - begin in your life. May you receive back everything you have lost. May the Lord God our father, the son Jesus Christ and our friend, the Holy Spirit revive, renew and restore your life to the fullest, in Jesus's name – Amen!

THE DIVINE PLAN

When the circumstances and things around us are not aligned with our desires and thoughts, we often experience feeling of unworthiness, weak, and a sense of being abandoned by God. It can seem like we are living without a purpose or vision. But God has a unique and meaningful plan for your life. You will experience true fulfillment and contentment as you open yourself to His guidance and allow Him to shape you according to His purpose for you rather than focusing on your own thoughts and desires.The richness of spiritual blessings can only be fully realized when one's life is aligned with God's divine plan.

Speaking of a nation who refused to follow Him, God said: "…Look, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand...," (Jer 18:3-6).

He could destroy the clay and rebuild His work if necessary to accomplish His purpose, but that is not necessary. We know that is not His plan for us because He tells us in His Word, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope." (Jer 29:11).

The Creator knows what it takes to make His Children happy. Everyone has a unique purpose designed for them by God. When you open yourself to His influence and guidance, allowing Him to shape and guide you in fulfilling that purpose, you will experience a profound sense of wholeness and satisfaction. It's when our lives revolve around God's plan that we can truly enjoy the abundant spiritual blessings He has in store for us."

We often emphasize the importance of cultivating a personal relationship with God, but many struggle with the process of developing and maintaining such a connection. In James 4:8, there is a promise that states, "Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you." This verse suggests that actively seeking closeness with God yields a reciprocal response from Him. Establishing a personal bond with God necessitates setting aside dedicated periods of quiet solitude for activities such as praise, prayer, meditation, and attentive listening for His guidance. Jesus desires for us to comprehend His will and actively participate in His service. The journey to understanding and walking in the path that He has chosen for us is the secret to leading an enriching and purposeful life on earth. Furthermore, God yearns for our continuous worship and devotion, not just during designated times of prayer and meditation, but throughout the entirety of each day.

Commit to surrendering every aspect of your life to a higher power. Take the time to immerse yourself in His teachings and truly grasp the depth of His love and sacrifice for you. Express wholehearted willingness for His guidance and anticipate His response, knowing that He will never let you down. Train yourself to recognize His voice by heeding His subtle cues and promptings in everyday situations. As you do so, you will gradually uncover a detailed plan for aligning your life with His divine will. Remember, it's never too late to embark on this journey. Embrace the challenges and requirements revealed by the Holy Spirit and make a lifelong commitment to following His path. By doing this, you will find a profound sense of fulfillment and excitement, no matter where His plan leads you.

Hold God as your primary passion and place Him above all else in your life. Devote yourself to God as your foremost love and seek to draw near to Him in everything you do. Remember that our God is a God of boundless love, and His love for you is ceaseless. As you seek to understand your purpose, trust that He will be your guiding light. Never doubt that you are not an integral part of God's plan, you are destined to bring glory to His kingdom. Open yourself to receiving and following His divine plan for you and for the advancement of His Kingdom.

"The LORD directs the steps of the godly. He delights in every detail of their lives"- Psalm 37:23 NLT

BE THE ONE

“But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping….” - John 20:11

Many people met Jesus along the roads of Palestine on His journeys. Sadly, some did not recognize this compassionate, attractive, extraordinary Person as the Son of God. Others, however, believed in him and welcomed him. Mary Magdalene welcomed and accepted Jesus as her savior. She is the one who woke up early and went to Jesus's tomb. Even after discovering that Jesus was not there and the other disciples had left for their work, Mary made the conscious choice to stay behind. Remaining at the tomb, she fervently sought Jesus, her tears reflecting her deep sorrow. This profound display of devotion prompts us to consider whether we are similarly dedicated in seeking a connection with God.

Seek the Lord's presence, which is often translated as seeking his "face" in Hebrew. This means having access to God and being in his presence. Although God is omnipresent and always near everything and everyone, he is also always present with his children through his covenant commitment to stand by us, work for us, and turn everything for our good. As Matthew 28:20 states,

"Behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

But sometimes we feel God's presence is not with us always. For this reason, the Bible repeatedly calls us to "seek the Lord . . . seek his presence continually" -Psalms 105:4. God's manifest, conscious, trusted presence is not our constant experience. There are seasons when we become neglectful of God and give him no thought and do not put trust in him and we find him "unmanifested". There are endless obstacles that we get around in order to see him clearly, and so that we can be in the light of his presence.

By "setting of the mind and heart" on God. It is the conscious fixing or focusing of our mind's attention and our heart's affection on God. This frame of mind is characterized by actively engaging one's thoughts and emotions towards God, rather than passively coasting through mental and spiritual life. It entails making a deliberate and conscious decision to focus the heart and mind on God, aligning one's thoughts, desires, and intentions with His will. This was the subject of Paul's prayer for the church, emphasizing the importance of intentional spiritual focus. While it necessitates effort and intentional on our part, the very desire to seek God and the ability to do so is ultimately a gift bestowed by God.

The great promise to those who seek the Lord is that he will be found. "If you seek him, he will be found by you"- 1 Chronicles 28:9. And when he is found, there is a great reward. "Whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him" Hebrews 11:6. God himself is our greatest reward. And when we have him, we have everything.

Mary Magdalene stood alone at the place where Jesus had been buried, feeling desperate and seeking God amidst her sorrow. Through her love and earnest seeking, she became the first to witness Jesus after Resurrection. This incredible event was not experienced by the disciples nor the individuals who had journeyed closely with Jesus. Instead, it was Mary Magdalene, who ardently sought Jesus with all her heart, crying out to Him and demonstrating unwavering faith.

If you will seek God and plead with the Almighty for mercy . . .-Job 8:5

The act of seeking involves fervently reaching out to God, asking for His mercy, and striving for divine understanding. His countenance, representing the radiance of his character, remains veiled behind the curtain of our earthly desires. This inherent proclivity is poised to overpower us at all times, underscoring the necessity of adhering to the directive to "seek his presence continually.". "O Lord, open my eyes. "O Lord, open my eyes. O Lord, lift the veil of my own blindness. Lord, have mercy and reveal yourself. I yearn to behold your divine presence." It assures that God will reveal Himself to those who seek Him earnestly and will treasure them as part of His Kingdom. God invites us to embrace an ongoing consciousness of his eminence.

RESTORATION – BACK TO GOD

It is often when I sin or slip by, I struggle to get back on track. I peddle and wobble restlessly to be restored unto the Lord. But all my efforts turn futile. It seems that nothing in me can help me work out my Restoration. Of-late I've realized that it is this nothingness that facilitates God to come looking for me. I silently walk into His presence and wait there. I remain until He comes and restores in me the Joy of my salvation. May that be half a day, a day or two, but I remain at His feet silently pleading for the gift of reconciliation. And I wouldn't walk out until I'm assured that I'm restored.

It is very often that we don't get to repent by ourselves. Honestly, we don't even feel that urge from within. True repentance comes from God, so is the restoration We need to ask and wait for the Lord to work out His process in us. It is like a small child who disobeys the words of father, and later comes and silently remains in the presence of the father. The child doesn't know what to do but simply goes and stands before the father no matter what. We also ought to go to the Lord likewise. The Heart of the father is very sensitive to the silent walk-in of His children. Sometimes repentance is walking into His presence and silently waiting there at His feet.

As a child of God, we need to develop the art of being silent in the presence of our father. He likes to hear, and when He finds His child silent, He is compelled to speak! And when He speaks, His words start working! For He is full of Grace, Love, Compassion and Mercy.

'Quick, bring the best rope and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet'

These are the very first words that came from the mouth of the Father at the return of his son.

Can you notice that the father didn't utter even a single word to his son, but instead spoke to the servants first? God will speak His word to your situations around you at first, He will command His sonship over you. And then He will Restore your identity, and your place in the kingdom of God, and call in for a celebration!! The son simply entered the presence of the father, and the father ran to hug and kiss him,and the restoration began!

We sin so often, and still fail to understand the way to get back to God. God doesn't need our words; He rejoices at the heart of His children coming into His presence. You may feel dry and empty; you may not feel the urge nor His presence. Doesn't matter!

-Luke 15:22.Walk right up to God. Stay there. Make space, wait on Him. Remember His goodness. Call it a day, sing your song. Your spirit will slowly begin to revive. It's the sign He has come. He will fill you and lift you up; He will restore you all that you're entitled to, as His child!

REPENT QUICKLY – RISE EARLY

"I have sinned against the Lord"

- 2 Samuel 12:13.

David, a man after God's own heart 'Sinned'. And the Just God sent His prophet to Judge David of his evil deed.

How David responds to this is the key that forced God's forgiveness upon him.

After all the allegations and judgment of God on David, he immediately confessed his sins. It took him no time, he was quick, instant, clear and picked up his conscious pretty fast!

'That' was the Turning point!

We live in a world where we are constantly surrounded by sins. We trip over them now and then. We fall and crawl, shun away from God.

"I have sinned against the Lord". That was everything needed to call God to work again!

Don't wait until something goes wrong. Don't wait until your entire house is set on fire and some Prophet, Pastor or a friend knocks your door!

A helpless cry, God cannot ignore.

Astonishing, God cancelled every allegation against him.The quicker he confessed, the sooner he was restored. He was pardoned for all the transgressions. God poured out His mercy and restored David. Of all his sons, Salomon became the next heir to the throne, and God visited him.

Take no time between your sin and confession. Stop everything right now and get this thing right first!

HIS mercy will follow you!

THE GOODNESS OF GOD

The Beginning started with an 'Urge'. An Urge to do Good. Like God was desperately looking to do something good. He found a waste land, empty, dark and desolate and said, 'this can hold more of my goodness'. Out of it came forth the most beautiful and magnificent Earth ever made!!

As He created something new each day, it was good, but He wasn't done with it. He pressed on until it became very good! He didn't rest but continued until the earth looked very beautiful, wonderful and glorious. And on the 6th day of creation, He said,"It is very good" and then rested!

Though being humans, we sometimes don't rest until we do that good thing that's within the reach of our hands. It bothers us until we settle it. We feel so happy, glad and relieved after doing it. A sense of Joy takes over. And that's us.

Now think about God!!

Do you know God has so much of goodness in Him that it drives Him to do good to as many children of God as He can? It is this very urge that makes Him do good all the time. It is in His nature. He longs to do good over and over again in our lives. Not just GOOD, but VERY GOOD. He is therefore called "The Good Good Father!!"

Today, let this truth hit you hard, grip you tight, prepare you into receiving His goodness. Your life might have messed up, dried and gone. That's exactly what God is looking for today

Someone who can accommodate more of His goodness. Someone with nothing will draw the goodness of God over them. More than you wanting to be blessed, God is more eager to bless you. He doesn't rest until He showers His goodness over you. Rejoice then, O all ye people of God!

' I will make all my goodness to pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before you…' (Exodus 33:19) The Goodness of God walks ahead of His name. So, it's His goodness that will reach you first, then you shall hear His name !

When His Goodness pass by you, it will take over you and make you beautiful in every way. Streams of waters will spring forth out of deserts, a way is made in the wilderness, Joy is sprinkled in the valley and hope is shone like the sun that never dawns. You'll then say as God said,"IT IS VERY GOOD!!"

"Surely His goodness and mercy shall follow you all the days of your life…" -Psalm 23:6

GOD'S GOODNESS OVER OUR MISTAKES

Let me get straight to the point:

In the dictionary of God there's nothing called mistake. It is a terminology limited to man alone. A term that has consequences attached to it. But in the kingdom of God, you will be amazed to know that this term doesn't exist. God is sovereign, all powerful, all mighty, all wise, all glorious and full of life. Nothing is a surprise, mistake or disaster for him. Life in him curves every disaster and turns it into a glorious miracle.

"Is there anything too hard for me"? Says the Lord.

Jer 32:17

All the pain, agony, hurt, disappointment, mistake, discouragement is limited only to us. But God is limitless. A mistake in the sight of God is indeed an opportunity call for God. His goodness is full of heaven in such quantum that it can practically wipe every sin and its consequences from the entire world off all generations. When His goodness rests, there's not a stain left. His newness covers all the scars of life, while His grace will pick us up and make us stand again, this time in the strength of the Lord.

For all the biggest and miserable mistakes, I keep doing in my life due to my weakness, there's more; much more to what God's goodness can do with it. And that's why I celebrate, even when I fall. I sing aloud when I trip, I may even boast of all my weakness because I'd probably be the person who would get to taste and see God's goodness more than Gods hand is magical, powerful. With just one swing over your life, He can turn everything new and beautiful. Great and deep your sorrow and pain may be for the night, but in the morning the sun is up, and His goodness covers you like the mist that settles and saturates every inch of the ground. Everything is changed and is made fresh. The old is gone, and the new is here, as if it was only a dream. If God's goodness has a signature, it is the 'New'!

No matter what the enemy brings into your life to destroy, your life is anchored to the Lord and on the knowledge of His goodness. Oh, His goodness! This is the era of God's goodness, if it's not for you then who else would that be for?

Guilt and shame are not for you, get off that mind; get ready for God's goodness; one sweep of His goodness will surpass all the mistakes brought together of all ages.

Moses wished he would see God, and God let Him see a little of His goodness. But do you know God preserved all His goodness just for you and me? Moses only saw it, but God kept it for us to walk into it and experience Him.

Then, are we not more blessed than Moses?

Therefore,this must be our confidence; this must be our song: "I'm confident of this, that I will see the goodness of God in the land of the living" -Psalms 27:13

GOD OF PROMISES IN ACCURATE TIMING

"In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia…" -Ezra 1:1

It has been years since Jeremiah prophesied the return of Judah. Pretty much happened over a period of seventy years. Jeremiah is dead and gone. A generation has passed away; curtains have changed, kings replaced, the old have gone and the prophecy of the return is probably forgotten.

While the hopes of Judah seem to be turning off; right at the appointed time, in the first year of King Cyrus, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus for the word spoken ages ago. Wait a minute! King Cyrus was nowhere close to being a godly man.

And that didn't matter!

Hear me, it doesn't matter how old, how long and forgotten. The Spoken Word of God eagerly waits for the pre-set time. It doesn't depend on the person, pastor, prophet or any external factors. Let them all be gone but His word is alive and unchanging. It doesn't need a timer, or a reminder. In the right appointed time, it shall spring forth out of the impossible.

Cyrus was a heathen king, still the Lord birthed out an unusual desire of building a temple for the God of Judah. A Babylonian heathen king in reverence to the God of kingdom of Judah, a kingdom under captive?

You may have had so many God's promises for your life. You might have forgotten them. You might have ignored a few in the context of your present situation. It may look utterly impossible now. But let this remind you that your God is the God of Promises. He delights in keeping His promises in pinch accurate timing. Let alone everything, God will bring it to pass for you, whether you remember it or no. Out of the most unbelievable circumstances; from the most unexpected people, in a most unimaginable way He will bring it up to you!

So, hold on to Him. You've got a bunch of God's promises for your life? He will touch everything and everyone around you to favor you and establish you. Not one shall be missed, Not ONE!!

HE WON'T REST FOR YOU

"…. Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest but will settle the matter today". (Ruth 3:18)

The story of Ruth takes a twisting turn after the above verse. Until then Ruth, the Moabite did everything she was told to do, on her part. The last thing she did was to rest at the feet of 'Boaz', as instructed.

The immediate verse in the next chapter starts with Boaz calling the assembly to settle the matter for Ruth and Naomi. The events that lined up pushed the long-awaited helplessness, and hopelessness of Ruth into settlement, once and for all.

Boaz took the matter into his hands and stepped up to redeem Ruth and everything pertaining to her. Ruth left everything to follow Naomi to a place unfamiliar, and to a future unknown. That day, Ruth a hopeless widow got married to the best man of the land, blessed with a good family, became the owner of the field she worked in, and was clothed with honor and glory! Besides, blessed with a Godly generation (JESUS CHRIST)

Boaz symbolizes a picture of Jesus Christ, Our redeemer. Our helper. Our advocate, and Our Love!

If we could only go to the presence of Jesus and lay there; He will pick up our matter and will not rest until He deals with our concern, our challenges, and our storms. He won't bequiet until He redeems us from our misery and restores us to a glorious life unthinkable.

Has he not brought us with a price, His life? He will also redeem us from our troubles and will give us a life and a future. A life you can't imagine.

Are you troubled and restless today? Do not know what to do?

You may be waiting for a miracle, a breakthrough, a light of hope, and do not really know what else to do, how to process, how to get things back, and get going. Do not be restless, but instead go and rest the matter at the feet of Jesus, He will not rest until He settles it for you. His settlement is the full fledge restoration of all the matters of your life. Not just the request with which you go to Him, but YOUR EVERYTHING.

He owns all of you, and all that happens with your life. You simply need to rest!

Your part of the story is to go to Him and lay there. It's over. His part will begin, and His finish will be a dramatic end to all your sorrows and beautiful beginning to a new Life and Hope in Christ Jesus, with Jesus.

HE'S DONE IT

Times innumerable, I ponder and strive for a progressive blessed Life. Even at rest, my mind keeps thinking on what more can I do to credit the grace and blessings for a glorious life. Which of my works will move God into releasing His favor upon me. What kind of ministry will please God, what alms will catch His attention, what of my works will attract the glorious future over me? I tried everything possible within the reach of my hands, I recollected all the extra miles that I took for Him. Yet, none of my works seemed appealing. I did my best to prove it until I fainted. Nothing seemed to work out things in my favor.Trying hard to peddle in every direction, I saw myself drowning.

I then finally ended up before the old rugged Cross, the last symbol of hope, where all the weak and weary find rest. I glanced at it. I saw all that happened to this man hung on the cross. How he took all the pain, suffering, groaning, insults, blame and the severe punishment. He looked at me, smiled and said "All of this is for you. I chose to do this for you. You don't have to do anything. I took the pain for you. I took your sins upon me. I fought your battle, I shed my blood for you, and I'm a ransom on your behalf. It is finished", (John 19:30) saying so, He gave up His life for me!

My mind paced back and forth, the Cross still lay in the background of my life's good works, striving to do my best in my own strength. I said to myself, it is done. He has done everything for me on that Cross and has credited everything to my account.

I stopped wading. All the list of good works in my mind faded away, all that I had planned, I thrashed them down. I replaced it with the finished work of Jesus on the Cross.

It said,"Paid all dues, cleared all backlogs".

The balance that was left on my name valid until eternity.

Every morning when you wake up, remind yourself of the Cross, meditate on the finished work, claim the credit, and walk into victory. Every night, thank Him for the cross. Very soon you'll see yourself walking into a wonderful, blessed and a glorious Life that is assured now and forever in Christ Jesus, our Lord and saviour!

"The Work of the Cross has availed an effortless blessed and glorious life for all those who believe."

… Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

John 11:40

GOD CAN DO IT AGAIN

Have you ever felt that you've come back to the same place again, from where God saved and delivered you? You thanked the Lord and walked out of it, but along your journey, in life's chaos and confusion, you came down to that same lane again and got yourself stuck up there!

Israel's history is a little hazy one. They did the very thing what they were told not to do. They were instructed not worship any god, but they built altars for them. They would often fail in obeying God, yet in all of these, God though he punished, His steadfast love was never removed from them. He forgave again, He fought their battles again, He stood for them again, He came back to accept them again, He loved them again, and He did it again!

There are times we repeat the same mistake; we trip on the same rock, step on the same dirt, stumble upon the same sin and then realize we did it again! But God relented the disaster, minimized the punishment, erased the guilt, and forgave our sins. He did it before, He will do it again!

"Rejoice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me".

"I will bear the indignation of the LORD because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light; I shall look upon his vindication." (ESV)-Micah 7:8-9.

HEAVEN IS YOURS

When Jacob saw the dream of a ladder connecting heaven and earth, the Angels ascending and descending, he was seeing a prophetic picture of a great channel of access God was about to establish on earth.

Centuries later, this ladder came down for us as the only son of God, Jesus Christ, the only way, truth and the life. Through him kingdom of Heaven was brought upon the earth, and that access to Heaven was made possible.

He came to give us back the lost dominion, authority and Identity we once had. But along with it, He gave us something else also.

"And that's not all. You will have complete and free access to God's kingdom, keys to open any and every door: no more barriers between heaven and earth, earth and heaven. A yes on earth is yes in heaven. A no on earth is no in heaven." – Matthew 16:19 (MSG)

This is Grace. Grace is not some pass mark or some filler to push us cross some line. Grace is Jesus giving us the keys of Heaven.

That means, everything in heaven – all the riches, honour, blessings, goodness of God, mercy, favour, healing, deliverance, fullness of Joy, peace and abundance of Life – all is yours at your command.

All the full potential of God's life could simply be yours. Every goodness of God in heaven is yours at one word. The entire treasure house of resources is kept for you. The ministering Angels stand and wait for your command for a full fledge transaction of life and everything therein, of heaven, from the kingdom of Heaven unto the kingdom of Earth.

Jacob only saw the dream. He saw the future. We see it happen and we are living in it. We're far more blessed than Jacob. He raised an altar and worshipped God. We stand only to operate, command and unleash heaven's power; the best and most wonderful things heaven has in store for you!

You've got the ladder; you've got authority, and you've got the key. You are the heir. Now go get everything of heaven!

Don't wait until you get to heaven; you don't have to die to get to heaven. Jesus died to get heaven to you. It is here and it is yours!

"According as his divine power hath He given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness" - 2 Peter 1:3

TODAY IS THE DAY

"This is the day the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." Psalm 118:24

'This is the day' is one strong and enforcing statement. Like a command, a straightforward push; an excited win declaration.

The Psalmist starts with all kinds of statement, a mixture of praise, thanksgiving, helplessness, hopelessness and then reaches down to "This is the day…."

There are many reasons to cry and crib about – the helpless state, ever hunting enemy, thick sorrow, and hopelessness. But it seems the Psalmist is struck by a strong and firm determination, a sudden infinite assurance when he says,"this is the day". As if God has now spoken aloud that there is this day, He Himself has ordained, prepared and purposed it. A day to rejoice and be glad.

A day you will wake up with all your errands and prayers, but that day God has predestined and called it your day. Everything in this day is called to work for you. The events lined up to surprise you, bless you; someone would visit you and speak that word of deliverance that even you haven't noticed at all. Money withheld for years would just come rushing onto you.

An enemy who has been hurting you and bothering suddenly vanishes. That anxiety is simply removed from your mind like the change of a carpet or a garment.

You wake up as usual but the battle you've been fighting for months has been won. Someone has fought and laid the victory crown before your doorsteps.

Everything is miraculously favoring you. You haven't moved an inch, but everything around you is moving. God has spoken to everything around you to usher you, put that smile on you, to be joyful, to fill you, and love you. It's a day of joy dancing around you.

On this day you are crossing-over a five-year bridge in just one day. The Lord has chosen it to be your day and every particle in the air will work for you. In your favor, your enemies will surrender and give way to you!

God has designatedyour days that your help comes from around you. The paralytic man couldn't move but had friends who put him in the right place of healing. You may be helpless, but your situations will carry healing and restoration to right where you are. When your God is on-site, there's just celebration!

If in one day everything collapsed for Job, everything can also come together in just a day, just like that. God's power is stronger. A small portion of God's goodness is greater than all the best of worst thing put together.

Today is that day: A day of celebration, Joy and peace. Day to reap for what you haven't sown. Day to receive what is not yours. Day to shout for what you didn't struggle and yet is yours. You didn't run the race and yet the crown is yours. You didn't even strike your sword but a thousand has fallen to your left and right. God is giving you everything!

Stand ye today and see God do His best wonders just for you. Would you believe if I said to you, this is your day? Rejoice and celebrate now. Everything is going to be repositioned for you.

Today, everything will work while you rest and celebrate!

Eat and drink, your season is here!

BEHOLD I RESTORE: LORD

"For there is nothing which God is not able to do" – Luke 1:37

"Being confident of this very thing, that he who begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ" – Phil 1:6

I'm going to restore it, the things that are lost, and gone, I shall bring it back to you again. It shall be overflowing. The joy shall be full. I'm restoring broken relationships, erasing black spots; working on them to turn it into a beautiful picture for your life and your family. This restoration will begin from here. It shall start from here, and from you. Hear me: I will begin to make all things new. This will be my doing. I will instigate and stir to begin what I have purposed to do and to bring into action, the prophetic movements, the bestowed visions and dreams. I shall call those things that are not as if they were, and they shall stand before me. When I can make the crooked paths straight, I can also reverse it: I will unsettle the settled, disturb the comfort, make the even uneven, remove the foundations of the old, familiar, and known; I will reframe-reshape-realign and pause everything and everyone – just for you, if you are ready to believe, I'm just one thought away from moving over you in my capacity of limitless power. I'm the Lord, and there is none besides me. There is nothing that I cannot do. I'm the Lord of Restoration!

"On that night the king could not sleep. And he gave orders to bring the book of memorable deeds, the chronicles and they were read before the king." – Esther 6:1

There will be rattling sound around you, a restless and unsettled movement that will call into picture for the need for restoration. The work of the Lord shall be established, and none can stop it. The enemy is bound and confused and is defeated, but the Lord will reign as always in every story and on every page of History. His people will always see wonders. When they sleep and rest, they shall sleep with those glorious memories, and the works of the Lord shall they carry to their graves. He will not let His anointed be in darkness, there will be light and sound of restoration, for He will manifest to them that which is impossible. Everything that will result to the sound of celebration, them, He will call it forth, like a thunder that strikes and brings in rain. He will do it, for His sake, His name's sake and His children's sake. They will experience the goodness of God, His love and His grace!

I will orchestra things no man would dare imagine. You won't find patterns to my ways or can frame them. I will call them from ends of the earth, I will weave them, knit them together and bring forth beauty out of ashes. It is me who calls seasons into picture. They do as I command. It is I who lifts the humble and walks with the lonely.

It is in my hands to exalt a man and to make him great. I will bring it to pass every word I have spoken, and I will watch over it to perform. I make beauty out of ashes and trade sorrow for Joy. I forgive and extend mercy to those who I want to, and I will fill your barns with laughter and Joy! I have spread mercy over you, and I will not take it back. I will withhold no good from you, I have declared, and I will bring it to pass. It is over, it is finished, the night is gone, the light has come. You will see the goodness from now on!

Arise and Shine!

FIND ME HERE

I look not for a long life, but full.

I look not to stand on top of the highest peak, but to stand tall and humble before God.

I look not for riches, but to be rich in God's nature.

I look not for fame or name but all for His Glory.

I look not for a great life, but a life useful to God and a blessing to others.

I look not for comfort, but to comfort others.

I look not for a selfish gain, but a selfless life.

I look not to have, but to give.

I look not to be here, but to be there, in His presence.

Here is where I'm found. Where all my fear is gone.

Here is where I sing my heart out, it's where I'm myself.

Here is where Joy is surrounded; where peace abounds, where my heart is at rest.

Here is where everything God promised, is undoubtedly mine.

Find me here O Lord, on my knees – my eyes firmly fixed upon you; for to behold your face is to behold life!

Keep me close to thine heart, and because it will never stopbeating, I'll never stop loving you!

HIS DEATH - OUR LIFE!

The Old Testament is like the limited edition of God. People experienced God in quantum of limited possibilities. The sin was made the heavens brass over earth and only a small portion of portals opened between the kingdom of God and kingdom of Earth. Israel was brought into covenant with God, but it did not have strength to keep the covenant. It failed often and failed so terribly. Every time they failed, they saw the consequences until they returned and saw God's hand of restoration. The goodness of God was intermittent. The exposure of God to man was limited as Jesus had not yet come, the window between heaven and earth had a limited access.

But with the coming of Jesus Christ, the wall and barrier between Heaven and earth is broken, and every limitation that prevailed was torn apart. He became a sin atonement, not just that, but an ultimate provision of God's goodness in full measure on the earth. God is not limited now. Back then when people sinned, the consequences would already take its turn. God didn't want that. But He let them teach and discipline His people.

Today the principles are the same, but God is unlimited. God is love, compassionate, kind and full of goodness. Before any consequences of a sin would have its way, God's fullness will nullify it. Under the hand of God, the sin in the life of a believer is powerless. Only if there is repentance, His goodness will quickly run over those consequences and fill us with His goodness.

I call the New Testament as unlimited edition of God. God is understood more clearly. He is more loving than He is anger. He is caring. Even in chastising, there is His abundant love wrapped around it

The Old Testament people had lesschance of turning around; they vanished to never re-appear because of their iniquity. But New Testament comes with a privilege and access to an unlimited goodness of God. Even when we fall, we rise higher than our previous state. We become stronger with each rise. For all our weakness out together, there is God's strength. For all our sins there's atonement. As long as you've got heart for the Lordand you love him, his power stands next to you, and does the lifting!

"My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore, most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." 2 Chor 12:9

This message is for the bunch of people under New Testament covenant; the provision of limitless God will change our lives forever. My prayer for you is that we understand the benefit of God's forgiveness, grace and restoration.No one who has fallen cannot be restored and mark me - restoration is paid in full and double to your previous state. In fact, every time we fall into sin, and we rise back, we are baptized unto God's grace of restoration.There's a new power that resides within us.

Jesus did not die just for our sins. This is just one leaf in a very big tree. His death has brought us life in ways we are still discovering even after centuries, and it seems we'd never be able to know how much more His death has brought us life! There's more to what we know, there's more to what His death has given us!
